High quality---We use PVC tarpaulin material for bouncing floor, slide surface, climbing wall or other main parts of product.

Although it is a residential one, we still do it as commercial grade to make sure it is really strong and can be used long time.

Other parts are made of 420D polyester or Nylon, which is better and stronger than other brands in market.

Shipment---All products are shipped in factory by DHL, which costs 7-15 days to house after order.

Exclent service---Once order is approved, our staff will contact each customer for shipment. And they will follow the whole shipping until customers get order safely.
